

Intervals on One String

Standard tuning

♩ = 120

1 Minor 2nd (half step) 2 Major 2nd (whole step) 3 Minor 3rd

This block shows the first three intervals on a single string in standard tuning. Interval 1 (Minor 2nd) is between frets 0 and 1. Interval 2 (Major 2nd) is between frets 0 and 2. Interval 3 (Minor 3rd) is between frets 0 and 3. Each interval is shown with a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a TAB line below. The notes are quarter notes.

4 Major 3rd 5 Perfect 4th 6 Tritone

This block shows intervals 4 through 6. Interval 4 (Major 3rd) is between frets 0 and 4. Interval 5 (Perfect 4th) is between frets 0 and 5. Interval 6 (Tritone) is between frets 0 and 6. Each interval is shown with a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a TAB line below. The notes are quarter notes.

7 Perfect 5th 8 Minor 6th 9 Major 6th

This block shows intervals 7 through 9. Interval 7 (Perfect 5th) is between frets 0 and 7. Interval 8 (Minor 6th) is between frets 0 and 8. Interval 9 (Major 6th) is between frets 0 and 9. Each interval is shown with a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a TAB line below. The notes are quarter notes.

10 Minor 7th 11 Major 7th 12 Octave

This block shows the final three intervals on a single string. Interval 10 (Minor 7th) is between frets 0 and 10. Interval 11 (Major 7th) is between frets 0 and 11. Interval 12 (Octave) is between frets 0 and 12. Each interval is shown with a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a TAB line below. The notes are quarter notes.